Description of Property

Donor Certification

Gifts of Real Property must be reviewed and approved by both the President/CEO and the Foundation Real Estate Committee. If a gift of real property is accepted by the President/CEO prior to the approval of the Real Estate Committee, because of time or other restraints, the Medical College of Georgia Foundation retains the right to return the property to the donor within 180 days if the Real Estate Committee determines that acceptance is not appropriate for any reason. The undersigned donor as agree to the terms stated above and those outlined in the Medical College of Georgia Foundation Gift Acceptance Policy and hereby agrees to be bound by those terms and conditions. Neither the donor, nor any other individual, will receive any goods, services, or other private benefit from the organization as consideration for the amount of the gift that is tax deductible.
